

PAN PROPOLIS

...a versatile, aromatic product of nature

Propolis has originally been intended for leak sealing and honeycomb fixing in a beehive. For thousands of years now this resin-substance PROPOLIS has also been of big interest for mankind and has successfully been applied in many branches. Our company offers a wide range of PROPOLIS extracts, e.g. 10% in ethanol or propylene glycol respectively 80-95% in powder form. Our raw material exclusively originates from South America.
